

LUDOSHAKE

LudoShake is a lightweight interlocking terra cotta roof tile featuring the texture and varied thickness of hand split wood that can be installed in straight rows or staggered for a more rustic look. Random width tiles are available in LudoShake Premier. Available in six popular shake colors as well as custom colors or blends, LudoShake will never fade, rot or curl. And unlike wood, rubber or plastic shakes, LudoShake tiles are Class A fire resistant, easy to install, maintenance-free and have fewer pieces per square than most alternatives.
